

THEATRE AQUARIUS
RON ULRICH Artistic Director

Media Release - For Immediate Release – August 16, 2019
Pollyanna – The Musical no longer coming to Theatre Aquarius in 2020

Hamilton, ON, August 16, 2019 – Theatre Aquarius regrets to announce that the new musical Pollyanna will no longer make its debut as a part of Theatre Aquarius’ 2019-20 season.

“We are very disappointed,” says Theatre Aquarius Artistic Director Ron Ulrich. “Pollyanna is an ambitious project which is sure to have a tremendous impact for many years to come, and we are sad to no longer be a part of that journey.”

Yonge Street Theatricals Producer Natalie Bartello agrees, “We were looking forward to this developmental opportunity, but due to circumstances beyond Theatre Aquarius’ control, important elements of the show’s licensing agreement were unable to be fulfilled at this time.”

Pollyanna – the Musical will continue with planned development activities. Theatre Aquarius will announce new programming for the coming season in the near future, at which time Theatre Aquarius subscribers will be advised of replacement programming and single-show ticket holders will be contacted.

Media Contact/Information for Theatre Aquarius:
Gregg Taylor, Marketing and Development Director
905-522-7815 ext 235 gtaylor@theatreaquarius.org