

THEATRE AQUARIUS

HEAD OF SOUND

Theatre Aquarius encourages applications from women; Indigenous people, First Nations, Metis and Inuit persons; black people; members of racialized communities; persons with disability; and people of diverse gender identities or expressions.

Theatre Aquarius is currently seeking applications for the position of Head of Sound. This is a temporary Parental Leave contract position for our 2021-2022 season.

The position requires an individual who is motivated and exceptionally organized.

As the department head, your duties lie in the preparation, operation and maintenance of all audio equipment within the sound department, the two main performance spaces and the backstage areas. This is a hands-on position.

In addition to having an excellent practical skill set, the successful candidate must have an ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines in a fast paced work environment. Strong interpersonal and communication skills are important.

Teamwork is an essential part of our working philosophy. We encourage a positive and proactive working environment. A good sense of humor is always appreciated.

Please submit your cover letter and resume prior to September 20, 2021 to:
